

COMIC-CON@HOME 2021 BOOK CLUB

IN WAVES BY AJ DUNGO DISCUSSION GUIDE

What was your favorite part of the book?

Would you recommend it to others?

How did you feel about the melding of the personal story with the history of surfing?

How did the color choices affect the narrative?

How did the art style work to further the story?

Could you relate to any part of AJ or Kristen's story?

How did you feel the author conveyed the experience of grief?

What was the experience like of reading such a personal story?

Have you ever been surfing? Did this book inspire you to try?

Were you familiar with the history of surfing prior to reading In Waves?

What are other autobiographical graphic novels that you have read and enjoyed?

