COMIC-CON @HOME

FUN BOOK

ISSUE 35

INCLUDES ANSWERS TO THIS MONTH’S PUZZLES.
THIS EDITION IS COURTESY OF:

KAISER PERMANENTE thrive

Comic-Con and the Comic-Con Museum@Home logo are registered trademarks of San Diego Comic Convention. Kaiser Permanente and Thrive logo courtesy of Kaiser Permanente San Diego.
DC Comics' Mari McCabe, aka Vixen, first appeared in Action Comics #521, published July 1981! In celebration of her 40th anniversary, draw her in your style at the start of the maze, then follow the pattern to get to the end of the maze! Post a photo of your fan art and tag @comicconmuseum for a chance to be reshared on the Comic-Con Museum's social media!

Follow this pattern:

Left, right, up, and down only; no diagonal moves.

Draw Vixen at the start!
Dots & Boxes

It’s been 25 years since the release of the films below! Minimum 2 players. Take turns connecting two dots horizontally or vertically only; no diagonal lines! When you complete a box, write your initials in it, then take another turn. Empty boxes are each worth 1 point. Boxes around a film title are each worth 2 points. The player with the most points wins!

The Phantom

The Nutty Professor

Independence Day

Hunchback of Notre Dame

The Craft

Matilda

Kazaam

Space Jam

Mars Attacks!

Scream

Dragonheart

Muppet Treasure Island

Star Trek: First Contact

Mr. Toad’s Wild Ride

Mystery Science Theater 3000: The Movie
The Eternals were created by Jack Kirby, and made their first appearance in The Eternals #1, published in July 1976. In celebration of the title’s 45th anniversary, color the main text of each listed Eternal, and shade the layer behind each name using the suggested technique.
Happy 55th anniversary, Black Panther! Portrayed by the iconic Chadwick Boseman on screen, the kingly character co-created by Stan Lee and Jack Kirby first appeared in Fantastic Four #52, published in July 1966. How quickly can you find the 20 terms related to the comics and film? Look across, down, diagonal, and backwards.

Avengers
Bozeman
Dora Milaje
Fantastic Four
Jungle Action
Kasper Cole
Killmonger
Kirby
Lupita Nyong’o
Mr. Okonkwo
Nakia
Okoye
Ororo Munroe
Shuri
Ta-Nehisi Coates
T’Chaka
T’Challa
Ulysses Klaw
Vibranium
Wakanda
Cross Purpose

Find out how much you know about the Golden Age of Comics in this month’s crossword, which celebrates the 80th anniversaries of eight comics characters!

ACROSS

2. This character first appeared in Flash Comics #1 before she was played by Clara Renée in CW’s The Flash, Arrow, and Legends of Tomorrow.
6. The artist who co-created 2-Across with writer Gardner Fox.
10. "Gato Negro" is the Spanish pronunciation of the codename for Linda Turner, a starlet and stunt woman superhero who first appeared in Harvey Comics’ Pocket Comics #1.
11. Real first name of Bucky Barnes, who first appeared in Captain America Comics #1.
12. The Penguin’s real last name.
14. 16-Across was co-created by Paul Norris and this editor also known for his work on Superman during the mid-1950s to 1960s.
15. At Gabriele, creator of 10-Across, also pencilled and inked for titles published by Timely Comics, which changed to this publishing brand in the 1960s.
16. This DC character first appeared in More Fun Comics #7 before he was played by Jason Momoa on screen.

DOWN

1. This journalist, MacArthur Genius, and National Book Award winner wrote Captain America from July 2018–July 2021 and Black Panther from April 2016–April 2021.
3. After the Iger Studio debuted the Phantom Lady in Quality Comics in 1941, the character was published by this Blue Beetle publisher starting in 1947.
4. The name of Professor Erskine’s Project that turned Steve Rogers into a Super-Soldier.
5. Fittingly, The Penguin first appeared in Detective Comics #58, which published in this cold weather month of 1941.
7. Before continuing the arc of 8-Down in Sensation Comics, she first appeared in issue #8 of this comic book series.
8. She’ll lasso you up if she thinks you’re lying, an idea that came from writer William Moulton Marston, who also invented the lie detector.
9. Upon the acquisition of the Phantom Lady by 3-Down, this Black comic creator and Eisner Hall of Famer revamped her into the version most renowned today.
13. He co-created Bucky Barnes with Jack Kirby.
Color Us Thriving | courtesy of KSAER PERMANENTE. thrive

Post a photo of you and your finished sheet and tag @comicconmuseum for a chance to be featured on our social media! For wellness ideas, follow @kpsandiego on Twitter, @kpsandiegocounty on Instagram, and @kpthrive on Facebook.
But Wait, There’s More!

JOIN US THIS WEEKEND!

In addition to this Comic-Con®Home edition, we’ll also post fun content and trivia games on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter, including daily Thrive reminders courtesy of Kaiser Permanente San Diego. Join the fun by turning post notifications on for @comicconmuseum and we’ll see you Friday–Sunday, July 23–25!

SIGN UP FOR THE MUSEUM INSIDER!

Our free monthly newsletter is chock full of information on upcoming programs, Museum campaigns, and more. To sign up, please visit comic-con.org/museum and complete the online form listed in the sidebar!

BECOME A CHARTER MEMBER!

Our supporters have helped raise critical funds towards educational programs, workshops, panels, and so much more. Benefits include collectibles like the Comic-Con Museum lanyard, enamel pin, and the 2021 Charter Member t-shirt! Sign up at Tiers 3, 4, or 5 to earn priority registration on Museum events.